

Describe the weather today.

Count the number of windows and doors in your house and write a "number" sentence that describes what you discovered.

Make a list of "ou" and "ow" words.

Write as many words as you can think of using the letters from the word "VACATION."

Describe what an adjective is.
Make a list of adjectives that describe you.

Make a list of "ai" and "ay" words.

Write a letter to introduce yourself to your teacher for next year.

Describe what a verb is. Make a list of as many verbs as you can think of.

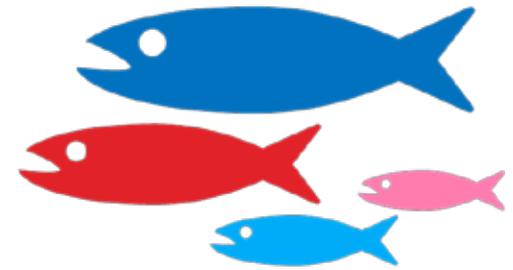

Look around your house and make a list of objects that start with each letter of the alphabet.

_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

Count how many people are in your entire family. Is the number odd or even?

Make a list of "-ake," "-ade," and "-ame" words.

Read a book and then draw a picture of your favorite character.

Using a deck of cards, turn over two cards and add their numbers in your head. Repeat for the whole deck.

Make a list of "-een," "-eat," and "-eek" words.

Take a walk with an adult and count your steps.

Write down the steps for making a sandwich. Then ask an adult to help you make your favorite sandwich.

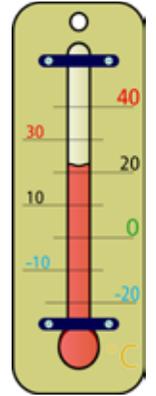

Use a ruler or a yardstick to measure 10 objects in your room.

Keep track of the temperature on a Friday, a Saturday, and a Sunday. Which day was the warmest?

Friday _____

Saturday _____

Sunday _____

Read a book and write down a problem that a character faced. Then write about the solution the character used to solve the problem.

Make a list of "-ike," "-ide," and "-ght" words.

Find three things in your house that are shorter than 6 inches. Use a ruler to check their length.

Find three things in your house that are longer than 6 inches. Use a ruler to check their length.

On the Fourth of July, make a list of words that rhyme with the words "red," "white," and "blue."

1. =
2. =

Using a ruler with centimeters, measure 10 objects in your room to see how long they are in centimeters.

Draw a map of your house.

Check a clock in your house at least five times during the day and write down the time.

Read a nonfiction book and make a list of facts from the book.

1. = _____

2. = _____

Write down the numbers from 1 to 120. Then write them backward.

123
456
789

Write a story about something you recently watched on television
(for example, a movie, a cartoon, a sports event, or your favorite program).

Write down a list of as many animals as you can think of.

Talk about what three-dimensional means with an adult. Then make a list of all the three-dimensional shapes you find in your house.

Describe what a noun is. Make a list of as many nouns as you can think of.

Keep a daily journal of all the fun things you do during the summer.

Have an adult help you total up the amounts of different combinations of coins (pennies, nickels, dimes, quarters).

Have an adult help you locate different states and cities you'd like to visit on a map of the United States.

List some pets you or your friends have or pets you think you'd like to have. Then draw a picture of one or more of them.

