our mission

Changing the way America cares for children and families.

➔ Boys Town programs help ensure that children receive the right care, at the right time, in the right way.

ABOUT BOYS TOWN

Boys Town youth, family, community and health care programs touch the lives of more than 2 million people across the country annually.

More than 100 years strong, Boys Town takes a leadership role in advocating for change and reform in the current youth and family care system, and in applied research that can produce improved practices and outcomes for children.

Boys Town is one of the largest nonprofit child and family care organizations in the United States.

Each year, Boys Town provides direct services to more than 75,000 children nationwide through its youth care and health care programs.

RESIDENTIAL CARE

WHAT TO EXPECT IN A FAMILY HOME

Our highly trained Family-Teachers® are responsible for the daily care and teaching of the youth. Each home also has an Assistant Family-Teacher®, who works in the home with the Family-Teaching Couple. With this arrangement, there is always at least one staff member in the home for every four youth.

Six to eight boys or girls live in each Family Home. Every day, each youth has numerous opportunities to learn social, independent-living and academic skills through daily activities and family-related experiences.

Families eat meals together, do daily chores and go on outings. They also enjoy a summer vacation at Boys Town's camp on Lake Okoboji in north-central Iowa, where Family-Teachers continue their teaching and make this family activity part of each youth's therapeutic care.

Youth and their Family-Teachers gather every day for a Family Meeting. At these meetings, youth discuss important issues, learn how to solve problems involving the home and family, give feedback to one another, build healthy family relationships, and develop and practice skills that help them make good decisions.

The length of stay in our Family Home Program can vary, depending on a youth's progress and needs. Our Child and Family Translational Research Center® has found that kids do best in our residential program when they complete an optimal length of stay of 12 to 18 months. We advocate for what is best for each youth, which may mean suggesting that a child to stay in the program for the optimal length of time.

FAMILY ATMOSPHERE

One of the keys to youth success at Boys Town is living in a family atmosphere where kids are safe, valued and respected. This is what boys and girls find when they are welcomed into one of our Boys Town Family Homes.

KIDS ARE SAFE, VALUED AND RESPECTED.

FAMILY INVOLVEMENT

OPEN COMMUNICATION IS VITAL.

While living in a Family Home with their Family-Teachers®, children become members of the Boys Town “family.” But they don’t lose their own family.

As a parent or legal guardian, you know your youth best. Your input and participation plays a huge role in improving his or her outcomes. Your child’s Family-Teachers will work with you to develop a plan that lays out the best course of action to help the child. He or she will have opportunities to talk to you by phone during the week, and on birthdays, holidays and other special occasions. Parents are welcome to contact their child’s Family Home at any time.

Besides helping youth get their lives back on track, Family-Teachers and others in the Family Home Program strive to prepare youth and their families for reunification. Boys Town offers parenting classes, in-home family counseling and other resources to strengthen families and make a youth’s transition home smoother and successful.

RESEARCH AND EVALUATION

KIDS THAT COMPLETE OUR PROGRAM ARE SUCCEEDING.

Our research shows that the Boys Town Family Home ProgramSM gives children their best chance to build bright, productive futures. Years after completing services, Boys Town youth – even those with the most severe problems – achieve success as adults.

If you're interested in learning more about our research, please visit boystown.org/research.

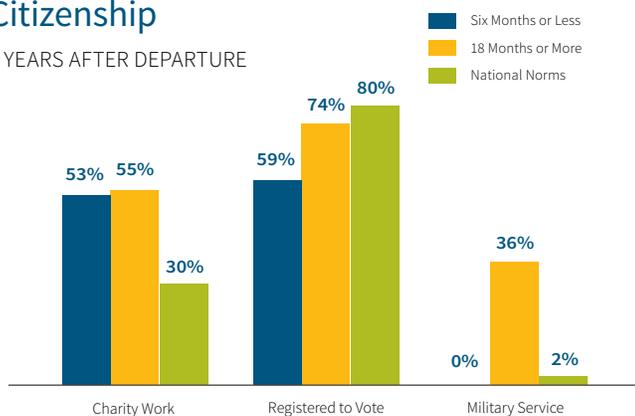

FAMILY HOME PROGRAM

Our research shows that years after leaving our Family Home Program, Boys Town youth grow into adults who are nearly identical to the general population in key success factors such as positive mental health, employment and relationships. (See below.)

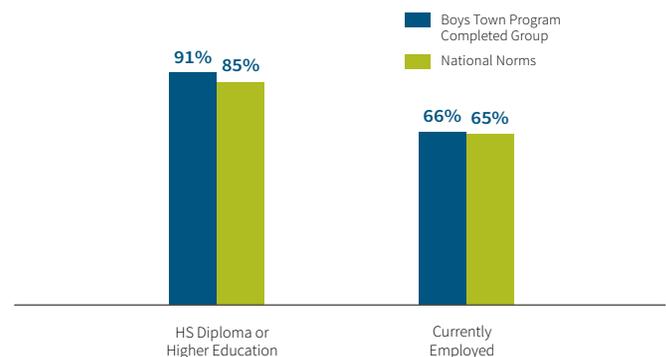

Citizenship

ACADEMICS

SCHOOL OVERVIEW

At Boys Town, children attend year-round academic classes at two state-accredited schools. Younger kids (grades 4 through 8) go to Wegner Middle School, while older students attend classes at Boys Town High School. Children who leave Boys Town before high school graduation can transfer the academic credits they have earned to their community high school.

Boys Town High School is proud to offer many AP classes in numerous subjects that our students can take advantage of, as well as many courses that help students prepare for a career.

All of our teachers are certified by the State of Nebraska. Boys Town's year-round school program offers a traditional academic curriculum that focuses on helping students – especially those who are behind in their schoolwork – find success in the classroom and get back on track so they can graduate.

Teaching youth skills that will help them find a job and thrive as adults after they leave our residential program is nothing new for Boys Town. Throughout our over 100-year history, we have prided ourselves on preparing our students to make their mark in the real world as productive, hard-working citizens.

At the Career Readiness Center, students can find their passion, learn specific workplace skills and build connections with potential employers and mentors while completing their required academic courses for graduation.
