Risk of using email
Transmitting client information by email has a number of risks that the client or legal guardian (email recipient) should consider before using email. These include, but are not limited to, the following risks:

- Email can be circulated, forwarded, and stored in numerous pages and electronic files.
- Email can be immediately broadcast worldwide and be received by many intended and unintended recipients.
- Email senders can easily misaddress an email.
- Email is easier to falsify than handwritten or signed documents.
- Backup copies of email may exist even after the sender of the recipients has deleted his or her copy.
- Employers and on-line services have a right to archive and inspect emails transmitted through their systems.
- Email can be intercepted, altered, forwarded, or used without authorization or detection.
- Email can be used to introduce viruses into computer systems.
- Email can be used as evidence in court.
- Email on shared email accounts can be viewed by more than the intended recipient.

Conditions for the use of email
Boys Town Behavioral Health will use reasonable means to protect the security and confidentiality of email information sent and received. However, because of the risks outlined above, Boys Town Behavioral Health cannot guarantee the security and confidentiality of email communication, and will not be liable for improper disclosure of confidential information that is not caused by Boys Town Behavioral Health's intentional misconduct. Thus, email recipients must consent to the use of email for treatment information. Consent to the use of email includes agreement with the following conditions:

- All emails to or from the email recipients concerning diagnosis or treatment will be printed out and made part of the client’s records, and other individuals authorized to access the client records, such as staff and billing personnel, will have access to those emails.
- Boys Town Behavioral Health may forward emails internally to its staff and agents as necessary for diagnosis, treatment, reimbursement, and other handling and/or as otherwise permitted by contract or applicable law. Boys Town Behavioral Health will not, however, forward emails to independent third parties without the client’s/legal guardian’s prior written consent, except as authorized or required by law.
- Although Boys Town Behavioral Health will endeavor to read and respond promptly to an email from an email recipient, Boys Town Behavioral Health cannot guarantee that any particular email will be read and responded to within any particular period of time. Thus, an email recipient shall not use email for medical emergencies or other time-sensitive matters.
- If an email recipient’s email requires or invites a response from Boys Town Behavioral Health, and the email recipient has not received a response within a reasonable time period, it is the email recipient’s responsibility to follow up to determine whether the intended recipient received the email and when the recipient will respond.
- The email recipient is responsible for informing Boys Town Behavioral Health of any types of information he/she does not want to be sent by email.
- The email recipient is responsible for protecting his/her own password or other means of access to email. Boys Town Behavioral Health is not liable for breaches of confidentiality caused by the client, his/her parent(s) or legal guardian(s), or any third party.
- It is the email recipient’s responsibility to follow up and/or schedule an appointment if warranted.

Guidelines for email communication
To communicate by email, the email recipient shall:

- Inform Boys Town Behavioral Health of changes to his/her email address.
- Put the client’s name and date of birth in the body of the email, not in the subject line.
- Withdraw consent only by written communication to Boys Town Behavioral Health.
- Include the category of the communication in the email’s subject line, for routing purposes (e.g., billing question).
- Review the email to make sure it is clear and that only relevant information is provided before sending to Boys Town Behavioral Health.
- Limit disclosure of treatment and sensitive information regarding client in the email.
- Take precautions to preserve the confidentiality of emails, such as using screen savers and safeguarding his/her computer password.
