Please read and review the following pages for an explanation of our office policies and keep them for your reference.

Please initial:

FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY AND PAYMENT POLICY

1. I agree that I am responsible for payment of all charges for mental health services provided to me, including any copayments or deductibles. I understand that I am responsible for notification at the time of the visit of any benefit changes in my insurance plan. I further understand that I am responsible for any service provided to me that is not covered by my policy. I accept financial responsibility for the services provided to me by the Boys Town Behavioral Health Clinic.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY AND CLIENT RIGHTS

2. I have received the Boys Town Notice of Privacy, which describes how confidential health information about the client may be used or disclosed and how to get access to this information. I have also received a copy of the Boys Town Behavioral Health Clinic Client Rights & Responsibilities.

CONSENT TO TREATMENT

3. The Boys Town Behavioral Health Clinic works with children and their families to identify and treat such issues as depression, anxiety, school problems, and ADHD. The Behavioral Health Clinic offers specialized services, including behavioral and psychological assessments as well as counseling. I, knowing that the client has a condition requiring diagnosis and treatment, do hereby voluntarily consent to such treatment by the Behavioral Health Clinic staff, assistants, or designees as is, in their judgment, necessary. I further acknowledge that no guarantees have been made to me as to the results of treatment. I authorize you to provide reasonable and proper care by today's standards. If applicable, I have informed my treating provider of my mental health advance directives and have provided a copy for mental health decision-making that will become part of my treatment record.

CONTACT BY TELEPHONE and EMAIL

4. I understand that by providing my landline or mobile number(s), I give my consent for the Behavioral Health Clinic, their agents, and their collection agents to contact me at these numbers, or at any number that is later acquired for me, and to leave live or pre-recorded messages, or voice or text messages, regarding any accounts or services. For greater efficiency, calls may be delivered by an autodialer. Providing a telephone (landline or mobile) number is not a condition of receiving services.

   You may contact me by email: Yes __ No ___ Email address: ____________________________

   You may contact me by text: Yes ___ No ___

   You may contact me by phone: Yes ___ No ___

   You may leave a message on my phone: Yes ___ No ___

PERMISSION TO FURNISH INFORMATION FROM RECORDS

5. I understand that certain medical information regarding the client may need to be released by the Behavioral Health Clinic to third-party payers in order to obtain payment for the services provided. I hereby authorize and request the Boys Town Behavioral Health Clinic staff to furnish medical information requested by the health insurance carrier or any other third-party payer. I authorize contact with my insurance company or health plan administrator to obtain all pertinent financial information concerning coverage and payments under my policy, and I authorize my insurance company or health plan administrator to release information to the Boys Town Behavioral Health Clinic.

   - NO I understand that even though I may have insurance that covers these services, I have selected to be financially responsible rather than submit to my insurance carrier.

COORDINATION OF CARE

6. I understand that in order to provide the highest level of care, the Behavioral Health Clinic may request permission to discuss relevant aspects of care with other providers serving the client. Such providers may include but are not limited to: physicians, school personnel, and previous mental health providers. When contact with other providers is requested, a separate Authorization for the Release of Information will be completed and signed for each provider. If your clinician may communicate with the client's primary care provider (physician) about today's appointment, please sign the attached Authorization for the Release of Information Primary Care Provider form and return it with this form.

STATEMENT OF UNDERSTANDING

Signing below indicates that I have read or have had read to me the contents of this document and have received pertinent information regarding Office Policies, Client Rights & Responsibilities, and Notice of Privacy. I agree to abide by the stated terms and conditions of service provision. I agree that these provisions will remain in effect until I provide written revocation to the Behavioral Health Clinic. If I am signing for someone other than myself, I represent that I have legal authority to do so.

Risk of using email

Transmitting client information by email has a number of risks that the client or legal guardian (email recipient) should consider before using email. These include, but are not limited to, the following risks:

- Email can be circulated, forwarded, and stored in numerous pages and electronic files.
- Email can be immediately broadcast worldwide and be received by many intended and unintended recipients.
- Email senders can easily misaddress an email.
- Email is easier to falsify than handwritten or signed documents.
- Backup copies of email may exist even after the sender of the recipients has deleted his or her copy.
- Employers and online services have a right to archive and inspect emails transmitted through their systems.
- Email can be intercepted, altered, forwarded, or used without authorization or detection.
- Email can be used to introduce viruses into computer systems.
- Email can be used as evidence in court.
- Email can be used as evidence in court.

Conditions for the use of email

Boys Town Behavioral Health will use reasonable means to protect the security and confidentiality of email information sent and received. However, because of the risks outlined above, Boys Town Behavioral Health cannot guarantee the security and confidentiality of email communication, and will not be liable for improper disclosure of confidential information that is not caused by Boys Town Behavioral Health’s intentional misconduct. Thus, email recipients must consent to the use of email for treatment information. Consent to the use of email includes agreement with the following conditions:

- All emails to or from the email recipients concerning diagnosis or treatment will be printed out and made part of the client’s records, and other individuals authorized to access the client records, such as staff and billing personnel, will have access to those emails.
- Boys Town Behavioral Health may forward emails internally to its staff and agents as necessary for diagnosis, treatment, reimbursement, and other handling and/or as otherwise permitted by contract or applicable law. Boys Town Behavioral Health will not, however, forward emails to independent third parties without the client’s/legal guardian’s prior written consent, except as authorized or required by law.
- Although Boys Town Behavioral Health will endeavor to read and respond promptly to an email from an email recipient, Boys Town Behavioral Health cannot guarantee that any particular email will be read and responded to within any particular period of time. Thus, an email recipient shall not use email for medical emergencies or other time-sensitive matters.
- If an email recipient’s email requires or invites a response from Boys Town Behavioral Health, and the email recipient has not received a response within a reasonable time period, it is the email recipient’s responsibility to follow up to determine whether the intended recipient received the email and when the recipient will respond.
- The email recipient is responsible for informing Boys Town Behavioral Health of any types of information he/she does not want to be sent by email.
- The email recipient is responsible for protecting his/her own password or other means of access to email. Boys Town Behavioral Health is not liable for breaches of confidentiality caused by the client, his/her parent(s) or legal guardian(s), or any third party.
- It is the email recipient’s responsibility to follow up and/or schedule an appointment if warranted.

Guidelines for email communication

To communicate by email, the email recipient shall:

- Inform Boys Town Behavioral Health of changes to his/her email address.
- Put the client’s name and date of birth in the body of the email, not in the subject line.
- Withdraw consent only by written communication.
- Include the category of the communication in the email’s subject line, for routing purposes (e.g., billing question).
- Review the email to make sure it is clear and that only relevant information is provided before sending to Boys Town Behavioral Health.
- Limit disclosure of treatment and sensitive information regarding client in the email.
- Take precautions to preserve the confidentiality of emails, such as using screen savers and safeguarding his/her computer password.

Risk of using e-mail
Transmitting client information by e-mail has a number of risks that the client or legal guardian (e-mail recipient) should consider before using e-mail. These include, but are not limited to, the following risks:

- E-mail can be circulated, forwarded, and stored in numerous pages and electronic files.
- E-mail can be immediately broadcast worldwide and be received by many intended and unintended recipients.
- E-mail senders can easily misaddress an e-mail.
- E-mail is easier to falsify than handwritten or signed documents.
- Backup copies of e-mail may exist even after the sender of the recipients has deleted his or her copy.
- Employers and on-line services have a right to archive and inspect e-mails transmitted through their systems.
- E-mail can be intercepted, altered, forwarded, or used without authorization or detection.
- E-mail can be used to introduce viruses into computer systems.
- E-mail can be used as evidence in court.
- E-mail on shared e-mail accounts can be viewed by more than the intended recipient.

Conditions for the use of e-mail
Boys Town Behavioral Health will use reasonable means to protect the security and confidentiality of e-mail information sent and received. However, because of the risks outlined above, Boys Town Behavioral Health cannot guarantee the security and confidentiality of e-mail communication, and will not be liable for improper disclosure of confidential information that is not caused by Boys Town Behavioral Health’s intentional misconduct. Thus, e-mail recipients must consent to the use of e-mail for treatment information. Consent to the use of e-mail includes agreement with the following conditions:

- All e-mails to or from the e-mail recipients concerning diagnosis or treatment will be printed out and made part of the client's records, and other individuals authorized to access the client records, such as staff and billing personnel, will have access to those e-mails.
- Boys Town Behavioral Health may forward e-mails internally to its staff and agents as necessary for diagnosis, treatment, reimbursement, and other handling and/or as otherwise permitted by contract or applicable law. Boys Town Behavioral Health will not, however, forward e-mails to independent third parties without the client’s/legal guardian’s prior written consent, except as authorized or required by law.
- Although Boys Town Behavioral Health will endeavor to read and respond promptly to an e-mail from an e-mail recipient, Boys Town Behavioral Health cannot guarantee that any particular e-mail will be read and responded to within any particular period of time. Thus, an e-mail recipient shall not use e-mail for medical emergencies or other time-sensitive matters.
- If an e-mail recipient’s e-mail requires or invites a response from Boys Town Behavioral Health, and the e-mail recipient has not received a response within a reasonable time period, it is the e-mail recipient’s responsibility to follow up to determine whether the intended recipient received the e-mail and when the recipient will respond.
- The e-mail recipient is responsible for informing Boys Town Behavioral Health of any types of information he/she does not want to be sent by e-mail.
- The e-mail recipient is responsible for protecting his/her own password or other means of access to e-mail. Boys Town Behavioral Health is not liable for breaches of confidentiality caused by the client, his/her parent(s) or legal guardian(s), or any third party.
- It is the e-mail recipient’s responsibility to follow up and/or schedule an appointment if warranted.

3. Guidelines for e-mail communication
To communicate by e-mail, the e-mail recipient shall:

- Inform Boys Town Behavioral Health of changes to his/her e-mail address.
- Put the client’s name and date of birth in the body of the e-mail, not in the subject line.
- Withdraw consent only by written communication to Boys Town Behavioral Health.
• Include the category of the communication in the e-mail’s subject line, for routing purposes (e.g., billing question).
• Review the e-mail to make sure it is clear and that only relevant information is provided before sending to Boys Town Behavioral Health.
• Limit disclosure of treatment and sensitive information regarding client in the e-mail.
• Take precautions to preserve the confidentiality of e-mails, such as using screen savers and safeguarding his/her computer password.

Acknowledgment and Agreement
I, whether for myself or on behalf of the below-identified client, acknowledge that I have read and fully understand the risks associated with the e-mail communication between Boys Town and me. I consent to the conditions outlined above. In addition, I agree to these guidelines, as well as any other conditions or guidelines that Boys Town Behavioral Health may impose to communicate with e-mail recipients by e-mail. Any questions I had were answered.

Providing a valid email address below authorizes e-mail communication between the Client or Legal Guardian listed above and the client’s therapist.

All other authorizations regarding e-mail communication with interested third parties require completion of Behavioral Health Clinic Authorization to Release Confidential Information.
